WELCOME COMMENTS FROM YOUR BG PRESIDENT...

Three hundred and twenty five people gathered in Dallas for the 2019 Bomb Group reunion, another truly memorable event. Thirty seven members from the 464th BG participated in our third combined group reunion with one veteran, one family member of a veteran unable to attend the reunion and members from thirteen families representing fallen heroes. Veteran Carl Will made the reunion truly special sharing his experiences both on the 'Hill' in Pantanella and flying missions. The 464th BG joined forces with ten of the fifteen B24(H) bomb groups and two B17(H) groups from the Fifteenth Army Air Force. In all twenty seven veterans attended the reunion's Saturday evening banquet. Active duty Army Chaplain Captain Cairns joined with the 376th BG to lead a poignant memorial service in true military fashion honoring our Fallen Heroes. Many enjoyed the Cowboys Stadium and Freedom of Flight Museum tours while others visited the Bush Museum and the Dealey Plaza JFK Memorial and Museum. Perhaps the most meaningful event from September 19th thru September 22nd, 2019 was the time spent together with veterans, their families and the families of fallen heroes sharing many stories and memories of the Army Air Corp and service in Pantanella, Italy. It was an honor to continue the legacy of those who answered the call and served so bravely in Europe affording the freedoms we all enjoy today. Though the reunion is now but a pleasant memory it certainly won't soon be forgotten. Thanks to the many veterans, family and friends for supporting the reunion and our group.

Dallas Texas Reunion 2019 Business Meeting Minutes

September 21st, 2019

Wyndham Garden Hotel | Dallas, TX

President Tom Will welcomed thirty seven guests to the 464th Bomb Group Dallas reunion and our third combined BG reunion dinner and Business Meeting.

Garrett Haas led the Pledge of Allegiance before the Friday 464th group dinner and business meeting. Veteran Carl Will was recognized and introduced family members then shared memories of his time in Pantanella, Italy. The experience of connecting with our veterans and relatives was most rewarding as we shared in the mutual love and respect our fathers, grandfathers and uncles had for each other.

Tom then read the list of our Bomb Group's recent Fallen Heroes and conducted a moving Missing Man Ceremony complete with the symbolic round table and all its elements. The Dallas Missing Man table occupied a special place of dignity and honor prior to our group dinner. At our Business Meeting Saturday morning we recognized family members of veterans unable to attend, and family of fallen heroes. Tom recognized twelve 464th veterans who attended past reunions but were unable to travel to the 2019 reunion and provided a list with contact information so everyone could reach out to those veterans.

Garrett Hass delivered the Treasurers report and thanked Sharon Goode for her assistance and dedication. The 464th Bomb Group was well represented at the reunion where twenty seven veterans from across twelve Bomb Groups and three hundred twenty five people assembled to continue the reunion tradition working to maintain the legacy of these brave men.

President Tom Will adjourned the meeting at 12:00 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

Remember Their Sacrifice...

It is not out of heedlessness or cowardice that the Germans keep abandoning immense numbers of tanks and armored vehicles by the roadsides of France. These tanks and trucks are out of gasoline.

The Missing Man Table

Plan to join us in September for the 2020 Albuquerque, New Mexico Bomb Group reunion to help remember and pay tribute to these great men recently added to our Last Sortie List.

Coming soon...remembering our Heroes

Charles Stanley longtime 464th Bomb Group member recounts the experiences of his father and so many other airmen after ditching their planes in Yugoslavia.

Charles E. Stanley Jr. is the author of the upcoming book, ‘The Lost Airmen: US Bomber Crews Stranded Behind Enemy Lines in Yugoslavia during World War II.’ He spent twenty years researching and writing the book, and has interviewed and collected original material on most of the 132 airmen involved. One of the Lost Airmen was Charles E. Stanley Sr., the author’s father.

Be sure to visit his website and support his efforts to get the book published and released.

A Business Update from Our Bomb Group Treasurer

We had another fun reunion in Dallas, Texas! Going to Cowboy's Stadium and the Frontiers of Flight Museum were my favorite events. The reunion went well as we broke even on the registration, expense and meals. Cash on hand is $4,084.84 for the group with a net balance of $1,332.69. Financially we are doing a good job balancing our payments. A big thank you goes out to Sharon Goode and Paula Archazki for doing a wonderful job keeping track of our numbers. Donations from members support newsletters, website, reunion registration mailings, lunches, dinners, supplies and miscellaneous expenses. Donations are necessary and greatly appreciated.

Currently we have collared shirts, mugs and the 15th Air Force wooden plaques for sale. Contact Tom Will, Sharon Goode or myself if you need one. Get ready for 2020 as we head to beautiful Albuquerque, New Mexico! My favorite restaurant in town is the Frontier right next to the University of New Mexico. I also recommend checking out old town Albuquerque if you get the chance. There are many unique shops and the San Felipe de Neri, (the oldest building in Albuquerque) is located in old town Albuquerque. Hope to see you there!

Albuquerque, NM 2020 Reunion...PLAN NOW!

William Chamberlain, Friend of Major John Thelen, Co Pilot, B24(H) Shoo Shoo Baby

Ed Note: Bill Chamberlain became a friend and caretaker to Major Thelen late in his John's life and in the process discovered a true American War Hero, here is his story of this amazing American Patriot.

John was a quiet man. Were it not for a simple request one afternoon to see if I could find a photo of the 'Shoo Shoo Baby' on online, I would have never discovered a real American Hero and treasured all the richness he and my memories of time with him would bring me. John filled a void in my life that I did not even know existed until we met. John was 90 years old when we met—my five years with him are among the finest of my life. He was the epitome of the 'Greatest Generation' serving the United States well. John never lost his humor. In his last days in the care center, it gave me tremendous honor and personal satisfaction reading excerpts from 'Tomorrows Promise' a riveting book written by Bruce Kofke, son of the 'Baby' tail gunner, Edward Kofke. Ed kept a diary from the day he entered the service until he left and even after his discharge. I sent the book to the WWII Museum to offer in the bookstore. It is a must read about John, Bill Shoemaker, the crew and all the fears, training, combat, losses, and heartaches these 19 to 22 year-old men went through. I am happy to provide a free copy to any veteran or their family who did not get a book at the 2019 Dallas reunion. It will come with a flash drive electronic copy of the memorial speech for Major John Thelen and a 2015 letter from USAF General Mark A. Welsh III, Chief of Staff on how the 'Ploesti Raiders' are an example of courage and determination against all odds still used today teaching new Airmen the history of airpower.

The Story of Major John Thelen, Copilot of the B24(H) Liberator 'Shoo Shoo Baby'

A 15th Army Air Corp officer, Major John Thelen was the 'real deal'. He served as Captain Bill Shoemaker's copilot on the storied 'Shoo Shoo Baby' often known affectionately as 'Baby'.

Their B-24 (H) Liberator bomber survived fifty combat missions in some of the worst aerial combat sorties of the war. They completed their missions without significant injury or death despite being shot up, experiencing a blown off tail gunner turret and in the end requiring over four hundred patches. They survived but for the grace of GOD and a truly prayerful crew. The 2019 464th BG winter newsletter described the heroic efforts of the ground crew required to keep the 'Baby' flying beyond all odds. It was a truly amazing story!

John Thelen and Pilot Major William G. Shoemaker clearly ran a disciplined crew and made sure they all stayed together for every mission sometimes with a little 'help' from their barracks staff officer administrator – Tooker. Bill and John made sure the crew lived, flew, prayed, and mourned lost airmen together. In a personal conversation about his war experiences all John initially would say was that 'a lot of good men died'. Later, together we came to grips with some of these feelings as I related incidences from the book "Tomorrows Promise" to John while in a care center facing his last sortie.

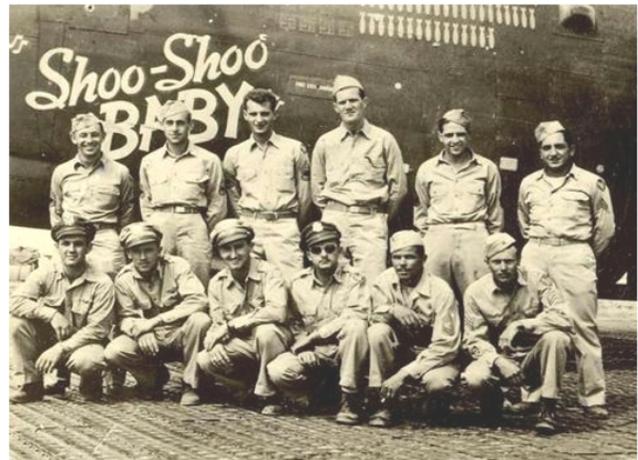

John's brother Lt. Colonel Charles Thelen, a B-17 pilot, was shot down on his third mission then incarcerated in Stalag Luft III and later Stalag Luft VIIA. In my presentation at the 2019 Dallas reunion I highlighted a Tuskegee Airman who not only flew fighter cover for the 'Baby' but after being shot down on his 19th mission Alexander Jefferson, the Tuskegee Airman, wound up in the same POW camps, Stalag Luft III and Stalag Luft VIIA, as John's brother Charlie. They knew each other and were liberated together at Stalag Luft VIIA by Patton's 4th Army. How very serendipitous! John related how that every time the 'Baby' dropped a bomb, he said to himself 'this is for Charlie!' John said that they felt more settled when they saw those red-nosed, red-tailed P-51 Mustang fighter planes. The 'Baby' would become the number one target for Goering's Luftwaffe. John recalled that one time on a mission, Shoemaker said 'not today!'

John continued his career and transitioned to the US Air Force where he served in many different aviation support and operational roles. He had the honor of flying Curtis Lemay on journeys around Europe. Major John Thelen and his brother Charles Thelen each retired after 25 years service in the USAF.

John retired as Major John Thelen and was awarded many service awards. His most cherished was the Distinguished Flying Cross medal, the highest award given by our country for aerial combat and the third highest combat award. John left us in March of 2015 to enter that 'cockpit in the sky' and join the rest of the 'Baby' crew. John was the last to join them and complete the roll call of a crew that was so blessed.

I miss that man a lot. I will never forget who he was and that he and the entire 'Baby' crew of 19 to 23 year-old heroes helped so much to give us the freedoms we enjoy today.

In memory of these two airmen, I had the 'Bomber Brothers Thelen' enshrined together at the New Orleans WWII Museum with two memorial bricks placed together on the 'Walk of Fame' leading to the Air Force Museum Building. How wonderful a tribute it would be if the entire 'Baby' crew had a brick, one for each crewmember presented together as the entire flight and ground crew since they completed 50 missions together. What a treat that would be to see and what a lasting memory of this great man and the 'Shoo Shoo Baby' crew.

The mission of the 464th Bomb Group is to recognize and honor the service of the brave men who answered the call of duty during World War II and served their country so valiantly in the 15th Army Air Corp based in Pantanella, Italy. Bomb Group reunions were started in 1955 first by the 778th Squadron and then in 1968 expanded to include all four flight squadrons and Headquarters operations. To date nearly forty reunions have been held in cities from coast to coast and points north to south. Hosted by veteran families, reunions are always a fun gathering affording veterans the opportunity to share their stories and family and friends a chance to learn about war time experiences but most importantly to honor and thank our veterans. Bomb Group newsletters work to foster communications and connect with those not able to attend the reunions.
